MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals as of right from the trial court order terminating his parental rights to the minor child under MCL 712A.19b(3)(c)(i) and (g). We affirm. This case is being decided without oral argument pursuant to MCR 7.214(E).

Although, the trial court clearly erred in finding grounds for termination under subsection 19b(3)(c)(i), which applies only where there has been a lapse of 182 days between the date of adjudication and the date of the termination order, the trial court's written order included findings that clearly referred to statutory grounds for termination under subsection 19b(3)(g), failure to provide proper care and custody without a reasonable likelihood that the parent will be able to do so within a reasonable time. The trial court did not clearly err in finding that subsection 19b(3)(g) was established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I), In re Miller, 433 Mich 331, 337; 445 NW2d 161 (1989).

Petitioner's evidence established that respondent-appellant's problems with violence, drug abuse, mental illness, and general instability persisted even after he received services from petitioner-appellee. Because the evidence did not show that termination of respondent-appellant's parental rights was clearly not in the child's best interests, the trial court did not err in terminating his parental rights. MCL 712A.19b(5); In re Trejo, 462 Mich 341, 356-357; 612 NW2d 407 (2000).

Affirmed.
